KING'S KORNER

My fellow Lions:

We have completed the first round of our Sharing program as we have given Holiday baskets to residents in our community in need. The next round will come during the Easter Holiday season when we will give away 75 baskets of groceries to our residents.

The meeting on the 24th will be our annual Clergy night, where we invite the local clergy to our dinner. In attendance will also be the singing group from the Overbook School for the Blind, the Nevallaires. This is a wonderful group of singers who have entertained us in the past.

This meeting will take place a few days before the traditional Thanksgiving Holiday and will add to your festive holiday spirit.

While I will not be able to be with you and our guests, we would like to extend to you and your family a most enjoyable holiday with many more to come in your future.

Sincerely,

Jim Cavallaro

RECENT EVENTS

Mary Sue Boyle, Administrative and Development Director of the Center for the Blind and Visually Impaired spoke to our members at our last dinner meeting.

FOOD DRIVE

We are ready to pack 15 to 18 food baskets for the less fortunate this Thanksgiving. We will do this at Jim and Diane Harrington's house on Saturday, Nov. 21 at 1 PM. A few volunteers are needed. Please contact Lion Lisa (610-449-7366) prior to coming over if you want to help.

CALENDARS

Do you have calendars that you don't need? We have buyers, so if you will not need some of your calendars, please bring them to the next dinner meeting or contact Jim Cavallaro (610-405-2677). And don't forget to return your calendar money to Jim Cavallaro.

CHILDREN'S CHRISTMAS PARTY

The children's Christmas Party will be held at St. Matthews on Friday, December 4th starting at 6:30 PM. Bring your children, grandchildren or great grandchildren. Santa will be present! You need to let Frank Udicious know the names and ages of the children you will be bringing (610-328-9075 or mludicious@verizon.net). Frank needs this information by November 28th.

MEMORIAL FUND

The Memorial Fund Committee will be changing the mission of the fund. Please refer to the October 27th issue of the LL if you need the current mission. Please contact Jim Cavallaro if you have any ideas.

CHICKEN BBQ 2

The Nelson's BBQ is set for December 12th from 11AM to 4 PM. The prices are $8 for a chicken dinner and $13 for a rib dinner. We don't need any Lions to work at the BBQ – just SELL TICKETS! Please see Kurt Schaefer at the dinner meeting for tickets or call him at 610-543-5523.

Please see the attached list of Golf Outing hole sponsors. We thank them for their support and don't forget to thank them in person when you patronize their business.

HOMETOWN DAY

LensCrafters in association with the Springfield Lions provides comprehensive eye exams, vision care and customized prescription glasses to people in need. Hometown Day in Springfield is December 10th from 8AM to 10 AM. Contact John Kulp (610-566-6211) if you know of someone who could benefit from this event or need further information. And, if you would like to help, contact John also.

LIONS' LINES

Remember, past Lions Lines are available on our web site, www.springfieldlionsclub.org. Please send all material for the Lions' Lines to Walt Young. Email is preferred (wtcayoung@verizon.net).
